

High Holy Days Yizkor Memorial Services 5786 – 2025

Memory is a sacred link between past and future and between time and eternity. At Yizkor we remember those we love who have passed on. The distinctness of individual life has merged into the spaciousness of the Living Energy and Light we call G!d. We remember the loved ones in our personal lives while being conscious and aware of our connection to all the branches of the tree of the Jewish people. At Yizkor we voice in our hearts the names of all those we love who have passed on. By doing so we preserve the memory of those who were our teachers and continue the tasks of life they bequeathed to us. Memory helps us to forge a chain of solidarity and continuity between our generation and the past, so we too remember all those who have no one to recite Kaddish for them.

Kaddish ~ by Marge Piercy

Look around us, search above us, below, behind.
We stand in a great web of being joined together.
Let us praise, let us love the life we are lent
passing through us in the body of Israel
and our own bodies, let's say amein.

Time flows through us like water.
The past and the dead speak through us.
We breathe out our children's children, blessing.

Blessed is the earth from which we grow,
blessed the life we are lent,
blessed the ones who teach us,
blessed the ones we teach,
blessed is the word that cannot say the glory
that shines through us and remains to shine
flowing past distant suns on the way to forever.
Let's say amein.

Blessed is light, blessed is darkness,
but blessed above all else is peace
which bears the fruits of knowledge on strong branches, let's say amen.

Peace that bears joy into the world,
peace that enables love, peace over Israel
everywhere, blessed and holy is peace, let's say amen.

At the end of this booklet, please find the entire Yizkor Service from Reb Daniel Siegel's Machzor.

Following is the entire Yizkor Service from Reb
Daniel Siegel's Machzor:

YIZKOR

Yizkor opens windows to the unseen worlds of the dead. Yizkor creates a sacred space and time wherein we can open our hearts and minds to the possibility of a genuine inter-connection with beloved family members and friends who have left behind the world of the living. Yizkor is a window. Prepare to open that window...

As you recite Yizkor prayers let your senses and imagination serve as the vehicle of inter-connection. For whom are you saying Yizkor today? Can you imagine that person's face before your eyes? See their smile, visualize how they might be carrying their body standing next to you. Do you recall the sound of their voice? Hear their words as you stand in prayer. Feel their presence right in this moment. In your mind, in your heart, allow a conversation between the two of you to unfold. What needs to be communicated this year? What's the message you need to hear today? What are the silent prayers of the heart? What remains unspoken? Speak. Listen. Take your time. There is no reason to hurry. This is a timeless moment. Let all the radiance of their love to be with you right now.

God is our source and our destination, our beginning and our end.
May their deaths awaken us to this truth
that the bond of love we shared and share

May they rest in peace, and let us say: Amen.

A psalm of David.

God is my shepherd; I lack nothing.

God makes me lie down in green pastures;

leads me to water in places of repose;

renews my life; guides me in right paths as befits the Name.

Though I walk through a valley of deepest darkness, I fear no harm, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff – they comfort me.

You spread a table for me in full view of my enemies;

You anoint my head with oil; my drink is abundant.

Only goodness and steadfast love shall pursue me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in God's house for many long years.

Let the name of the Holy Blessed One
 be glorified, exalted, and honored,
 though YHVH is beyond, yes beyond
 all the praises, songs, and adorations
 that we can utter, and let us say: Amen.
 May peace abundant descend from heaven,
 with life for us and for all Israel, and let us say: Amen.
 May God, who makes peace on high,
 bring peace to us, to all Israel,
 and to all those who live on earth, and let us say: Amen.
